Part of section 14, Registration Law: "At the said election no vote shall be received unless the person offering to vote is on the registry provided in this act, and if his vote be challenged by an officer of the election, or by a bystander, unless he exhibit to the officers of the election the certificate of registration issued to him in accordance with the requirements of section twelve and thirteen of this act. Provided, however, that any person whose name is properly recorded on the registry provided by this act, and who has lost his certificate of registration, shall be allowed to vote after he shall have been sworn by one of the judges of the election and shall have stated under oath that he has lost said certificate of registration and that said certificate has not passed into the hands of another person with his knowledge or consent."

SUPPLEMENTAL REGISTRATION.

The supplemental registration of voters will be made in the County Clerk's office on Monday July 28. This is in no sense a regular registration day for those who failed to register in June, but is for only two classes of voters, those kept away by sickness or who were necessarily out of the county all four of the regular days. Every voter registering must make affidavit and a heavy penalty attaches to false swearing in the matter. Below is the law on subject:

NOW ADVERTISE MAY REGISTER.

§ 15. Any person entitled to register, who was necessarily absent from the county of Christian during the days allowed for registration under and by the provisions of this act, or who was ill during the said time, or who was unable to attend the place of registration on account of the sickness of some named member of his family, may have his name placed upon the registry for the purpose of which he lives by attending the county clerk's office, at the time hereinafter specified, and making affidavit before the clerk showing the facts required to be stated in the registry by section five of this act, and showing the absence or sickness hereinafter referred to.

§ 16. On the last Monday in July in each year and on the Saturday preceding the Congressional election, the county clerk of Christian county shall receive in a bound book, to be kept by him for that purpose, the affidavits provided for in the preceding sections and shall place the names of persons making such affidavits upon the proper registration books, and shall write the name as clerk, and the date of the registry after the name of the person so registered in the column headed "remarks." For this he shall receive a fee of ten cents for each name registered by him under this act, to be paid him on other expenses of registration as paid.

§ 17. Any person making any false statement in any affidavit taken under this act shall be deemed guilty of false swearing, and punished by confinement in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than five years. And any county clerk or deputy thereof, who fraudulently registers the name of any person, knowing that such person is not entitled to be registered, or registers a name at a time other than that provided in this act, shall on indictment be deemed guilty of a felony and punished by confinement in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than five years.

§ 18. Any person in the county court clerk's office who challenges the right of any voter to register under this act and thereupon the county clerk shall examine such voters, and any witness who may be offered, under oath, and shall hear and determine the question of his right to register. And the duties herein imposed upon the county clerk may be performed by his deputy and he or his deputy may administer oaths under this act.

Cholera infantum has lost its terrors since the introduction of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. When that remedy is used and treatment as directed with each bottle is followed, a cure is certain. Mr. A. W. Walker, a prominent merchant in Waltersburg, Ill., says: "I cured my baby boy of cholera infantum after several other remedies had failed. The child was so low that he seemed almost beyond the aid of human hands or reach of any medicine. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Buckner Leavelle."

Correspondence.

BEVERLY, Ky. July 22.—A most pleasant change in the weather renders following more to be endured by a young professor who has abandoned the delightful task to train the tender idols to shoot.

Mr. Wallace West who went to Co. rean Springs for his health is at home again looking much better than we have seen him for some time.

Miss Sallie Pierce, Church Hill, who was visiting Miss Minnie Stegar, returned home Sunday.

Mr. U. L. Clardy, Bell Station, paid a flying visit to friends (?) in this vicinity lately.

Miss Lou Boyd is in your city for several days.

Miss Ethel Duke is the guest of Miss Minnie Stegar.

The party at Mr. Will Boyd's, Newstead, must have been a most enjoyable affair, for a couple from this vicinity returned from there when "Night had hid her sombre robes and roseate morn illumed the sky."

"Eatable frogs" are plentiful in the neighboring ponds.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Major entertained quite a number of young friends at their lovely home near Beverly, Wednesday evening, in so delightful a manner that we can but poorly express our admiration when we call it the most brilliant affair of the season. The illuminations and flowers were artistically arranged. At 11 o'clock we were invited to the dining room to partake of the delectable viands that epicurean talent could devise.

Miss Minnie Stegar, our lovely hostess, seemed never more fascinating and won the hearts of all by her gentle words and pleasant smiles.

Mr. Ernest Stegar, ever gallant and entertaining, assisted Miss Stegar and made a most excellent host.

The happy young people dispersed at 12 o'clock, feeling that they were leaving the fairy land of a poet's dream. The ladies present were: Misses Mary Campbell, Roaring Spring; Fairmine Shanklin, Hopkinsville; Ethel Duke and Sallie Pierce, Church Hill; Willie Barr, Bowling Green; Nannie Johnson, Annie Carter, Emma Gregory, Brownie Crows, Annie Johnston, Ida Dixon, Lena Milke, Pearl Cayce, Lucy Garrett, Mary Kenner, Maude Davis.

Among the young gentlemen were: Messrs. U. L. Clardy, the handsome Lexington student and the lion of the evening; George Wills, Claggott brothers, Will Gary, Herbert Shanklin, Tandy Mason, John Dixon, Hugh McGeehe, Clifton Garrett, John and Charlie Taylor, B. Carter, Lewis Thomas, Charlie Johnston, Will White, James Johnson, Roy Kenner and Lee Cayce.

An revoir, MAMMA'S GIRL ABOARD.

Misses Ethel Duke and Sallie Pierce are the pleasant visitors of Miss Minnie Stegar.

Misses Fairmine Shanklin, of Hopkinsville, and Mary Campbell, of "Flat Lick," are the most pleasant visitors of Miss Lucy Garrett.

Miss Bettie Garrett is visiting at Providence, Tenn.

Mrs. Alex Dority and children of Pembroke are visiting Mr. A. L. Carter's family.

Mrs. Eliza Stegar is quite sick at the home of her son, Mr. Toni Johnson.

Miss Minnie Mason, having returned from Rome, Georgia, is visiting her sister Mrs. Gus Watkins.

Miss Lula Carter is at home after a protracted stay at Pembroke.

The favorite song of a certain young lady in this neighborhood is "Keep me near the Cross."

Lewis Thomas and Lem Drame are attending dancing school at Bell, preparatory to the Longview ball-dance Aug. 6th. A certain young gentleman's favorite song is "The Campbell's are coming."

If we don't have rain in a few days the corn and tobacco crop will be a failure. Wheat did not turn out as well as the farmers expected, and the oat crop is a failure.

At the time of General Fremont's death he was engaged upon the manuscript of a paper for The Century's forthcoming series of the California Gold Hunters. It was to be entitled "Finding Paths to California," and was not only to deal with the several exploring expeditions, but to narrate the writer's intimate connection with the events which led to the conquest and occupation of the territory. The work will be promptly continued by Mrs. Fremont. A first draft of the article has been made, and the subject had been so recently and closely discussed by General and Mrs. Fremont that she will have no trouble in completing the manuscript, for which she had already written an introduction, as well as supplement describing her life at Monterey in 1849. A fine portrait of General Fremont from a daguerrotype of '49 or '50 will appear in the September number of The Century, along with the portraits of Commodore Sloat and Stockton, "Duke" Gwin, and Governor Barnett, in an article giving an account of "How California Came into the Union."

The Senate's original package bill was amended and passed by the House Tuesday, by the close vote of 109 to 94. It is intended to meet the decision of the Supreme Court on the sale of liquor in original packages when shipped from other States into prohibition States. The bill as passed reads: "That whenever any article of commerce is imported into any State from any other State, Territory or foreign nation, and there held or offered for sale, the same shall then be 'subjected to the laws of such State; provided, that no discrimination shall be made by any State in favor of its citizens against those of other States or Territories in respect to the sale of any article of commerce, nor in favor of its own products against those of like character produced in other States or Territories."

Mr. Van Pelt, Editor of the Craig, Mo., Meteor, went to a drug store at Hillsdale, Iowa, and asked the physician in attendance to give him a dose of something for cholera morbus and looseness of the bowels. He says: "I felt so much better the next morning that I concluded to call on the physician and get him to fix me up a supply of the medicine. I was surprised when he handed me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He said he prescribed it regularly in his practice and found it the best he could get for cholera. I can testify to its efficiency in my case all around." For sale by Buckner Leavelle.

Mr. James Breathitt, who makes a specialty of criminal practice, was sent out to the Chalmers Spring Monday to defend the Boyd ticket. The candidates for sheriff by agreement had staid away. Mr. West not being apprised of the fact that the ablest Republican orator of the county would represent Mr. Boyd. Mr. Breathitt's speech was a partisan defense of a very weak cause. It was so manifestly unfair that Mr. W. E. Ragdale, who was present, replied to it in a stirring speech of thirty minutes, and the applause that frequently interrupted the speaker clearly indicated that the crowd of 150 voters was largely against Mr. Breathitt's client.

A carpenter by the name of M. S. Powers, fell from the roof of a house in East Des Moines, Iowa, and sustained a painful and serious sprain of the wrist, which he cured with one bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He says it is worth $5 a bottle. It cost him 50 cents. For sale by Buckner Leavelle.

The light now being made for honesty in Christian county is attracting the attention of the whole State, and law-abiding people everywhere expect the good people of Christian county to do their duty at the coming election. In no other county in the State would a confessed defaulter have had the hardihood to ask a re-election and no other committee but the gang who control the Republican party in this county would have openly connived at corruption by endorsing such a candidate. Mr. Boyd may suit the corrupt element of his party, but the honest Republican voters will not touch him with a ten-foot pole. John Boyd will never be sheriff of Christian county again. Mark that.

The complete novel in LITTENSCOTT'S MAGAZINE for August is contributed by that popular English author, Mrs. Alexander. The story is entitled "What Gold Cannot Buy." The many readers of Mrs. Alexander's "The Wooing O' the Deer" and "The Wooing O' the Deer" and other charming stories will devour with pleasure this new and enthralling romance. It is the story of a plucky young English girl who goes out as the companion of an elderly and aristocratic matron. There are capital descriptions of English country life among the higher classes, and the story gradually leads up a startling and unexpected denouement.

The third time was the charm and the Republican County Committee on last Monday formally endorsed Mr. S. C. Mercer as the party candidate for Delegate and it is presumed Mr. Mercer put up the price demanded. He has made a public exhibition of his accomplishments as an abuser of Democrats, and having led a colored meeting in giving three cheers for John Boyd the committee came to the conclusion that he would do as well as anybody for the coming Salt River election.

Democrats and honest Republicans, if you are contemplating leaving home this week or next, put off your trip until after August 4. Your vote are needed to protect the interests of the taxpayers of the county. Be patriotic enough to sacrifice your pleasure or personal interests for a few days and vote and work for the election of honest men to fill the county offices for the ensuing term. It is a duty you owe as a citizen to those who cannot vote.

CREAM OF NEWS.

The Razor Route.

Got All His Cash.

A thief entered Mr. James Gowen's sleeping apartments Monday night and secured all the loose cash he had, amounting to about $45. Mr. Gowen is flagman on the accommodation train and had just been paid a month's wages the day before. Evidently the thief knew of this and was on hand early as the theft was committed shortly after he had retired. Nothing else was disturbed about the premises.

Green Ledford Killed.

Green Ledford, col., a resident of this county, was shot and killed at Kouring Spring Wednesday by Constable Hamilton, of Trigg county. Hamilton undertook to arrest Ledford on a warrant charging him with violating the liquor license law. Ledford resisted and drawing a pistol shot the officer, making a slight wound in the side. Hamilton returned the fire, killing his man. Ledford has been making his headquarters at Lafayette of late.

Monday's Registration.

County Clerk Brealitt will construe the registration law to mean what it says and will record the votes of none but those kept away from the June registration by sickness or absence from the county. This registration is not to correct the errors of the judges of the regular registration and no voter, however, unjustly denied registration through a wrong interpretation of the law, can be registered by the Clerk. Maj. Brealitt assures us that this will be his ruling, no matter what it hurts.

The Canvass.

The county canvass is moving along smoothly and the tour of South Christian will conclude at Pembroke Saturday night. The Boyd ticket has had a hard time of it this week. At Bellview there was a large crowd in the afternoon and another good gathering at Grassy at night. The Boyd candidate failed to attend the latter appointment. Julian, Newcastle, Bengetown and Lafayette have all been visited and to-day Beverly and Garrettsburg will listen to the flow of eloquence. Never have the people been so aroused. Even the old men are on hand and listen with eagerness to the plain facts of fraud and corruption. The whole county is excited over the approaching conflict. The women and children even are taking politics and there will be no cessation of interest until victory is achieved in August.

The Republicans have virtually given up most of their ticket and are concentrating all their energies on the election of Anderson, Boyd and Prowse. Morrow, West and Cowan are proving equal to the emergency and are making new friends at every discussion. The unmanly trifling attacks made upon the latter gentleman have strengthened him, as fair-minded men everywhere deprecate the bringing of trifling personalities into the race. This was probably resorted to in order to distract the attention of the public from the one great issue upon which the "Big Four" has been forced to go before the people. In the Superintendent's race Prof. Froggo has been marked as a winner from the first speech and his opponent is not even meeting him except at long intervals.

Taken altogether the outlook for the last week is bright and hopeful. Merit wins, as the marvelous success of Hood's Sarsaparilla shows. It possesses true medicinal merits. Sold by all druggists.

The Parsons Grace Methodist Camp meeting in Logan county will begin on July 24 and continue ten days. A hotel is on the grounds and ample arrangements will be made for all visitors.

Dr. Clardy is making a vigorous canvass in North Christian this week and will wind up at Crofton tomorrow. His opponent has not accepted the invitation to a joint discussion.

From every section of the county comes the most encouraging news. The people are losing sight of politics and will see that a ticket composed of the right sort of men is elected.

It is not improbable now that the Hopkinsville postoffice matter will go over until September. In that event it may be still further complicated by the candidacy of one or more of the Republicans who will be defeated for county offices next month.

The military boys at Cereulean are without tents and are having rather a rough time sleeping in cabins, or paying their way at the hotel. The State treated them badly in not sending the camping outfit according to promise. They will come home to-morrow.

An entertainment was given at Trenton Hall, in Trenton, Ky., by local talent, Thursday night, the proceeds to go towards carrying Todd county for prohibition at the August election. "A Social Glass," was the Victim of the Bottle," was the name of the piece rendered. A large crowd was present and a good round sum realized.

Judge Winfree has received a copy of the Road Law for Christian county passed by the last Legislature. It requires a vote of the people before it becomes a law and must be advertised 90 days before it is voted on. It was received so late that it cannot be voted on in August as was expected. The election will probably be called for the first Tuesday in November.

"Godley's Lady's Book" for August is here, and presents a gala appearance with two beautiful frontispiece illustrations and various other attractions. The number of fashion illustrations, the designs for fancy work, the choice of a cut paper pattern, and all the literary features render it very attractive and useful to the ladies. The Sebree House.

The Sebree House, at Sebree Spring, is now owned and operated by Mr. J. F. Orr, an experienced hotel man. Rates are very reasonable, board being cheaper than ever before. Hooks free to and from the spring. Everything first-class and inviting. Crowds flocking there daily, but always room for more.

PETTY PECULATIONS.

Trial Thefts to Test the Taxpayers' Standing Qualities.

Raises of From 10 Cents to $1.00 On 250 Lists in 1885.

THE RASCALITY IN ITS EARLY STAGES.

The examination of the sheriff's books for 1885 has been completed by the committee appointed by the County Court of Claims. Country to general expectation; the raising of lists was begun as far back as 1885.

It was believed that most of this sort of business was done in 1887 and 1888, especially in the latter year after the gang had lost its grip on the office.

The examination, however, settles the fact that it began much earlier, though on a smaller scale. A new species of fraud was also brought to light, that of listing women and non-resident taxpayers for poll taxes. More than one case of this sort was discovered.

In the books of 1885, completed Wednesday, about 250 lists were found raised, the aggregate stealing amounting to $143. This was taken from people all over the county, the individuals being mulcted in sums ranging from ten cents to four dollars. Widows and orphans as usual were represented among the victims and the colored people were not forgotten.

The KENTUCKIAN regrets that it has not space to give the list in detail, but it would prove but a repetition of other lists on a reduced scale. The same parties were in many instances victimized year after year, the assessments being increased as the conspirators became bolder.

The committee began on 1886 yesterday and are now going through the books for that year. The taxpayers raised will be notified at the end of each year's examination, but the work of giving up the ill-gotten gains will not begin until some date to be fixed ahead, after all of the books have been examined. The attorneys prefer this plan, so that a "jumping" settlement can be made with the victims who were annually defrauded.

The shortage of $11,335 already brought to light must be increased by $143 with six per cent. interest for five years, making about $186 to be added. This makes the total $11,621 and, in due moral language, "The villain still pursued her."

THE CIVIL CASE DECIDED.

The suits brought by the Auditor's agent against John Boyd and C. M. Brown for back taxes, amounting to $1,800 in the aggregate, were decided Wednesday in the Quarterly Court and judgment given for the amount claimed and fifty per cent. penalty in addition, making $5,500.

The case was argued by Wood & Bell for the State and Lauder and Stiles for the defense. The defense denied their liability to the penalty and claimed fees and discounts amounting to about $1,150. The $3,800 less this amount was tendered to the State and refused. It is now on deposit and will be applied to the payment of the judgment as far as it will go. The case will be appealed to Circuit Court, where another case for the county will come up in September, the amount involved in that case being about $1,400 fees and commissions claimed for collecting the money withheld from the county.

The amount already paid the county and the judgment given the State brings the total shortage so far up to something over $10,000, with $1,400 more on litigation.

If anybody has paid attention to Mr. Boyd's false claim that he had two years to make his final settlement, the imposition of this penalty of 50 per cent. will show that he was availing himself of an expensive privilege, while the State was borrowing money to pay warrants. The law is that money collected for the State must be paid over every sixty days. Mr. Boyd has held back thousands of dollars from two to five years and made four settlements with the Auditor, in which he reported in as many years that he had paid over everything due and was given a quietus on the strength of his reports. Those false settlements with the State are a branch of the case that must be shouldered by the ex-sheriff himself. They cannot be saddled on a deputy, for the State does not have its dealings with deputies.

FEAR SCHWITZ'S BOTTLING WORKS.

Everyone Entirely Satisfied.

One of the most gratifying features attached to the annual excursion to Old Point is the fact that not one passenger has ever returned from the trip who did not acknowledge that he received more for his money than he anticipated, and who did not speak in the most commendatory terms of the manner in which these excursions are conducted to the entire comfort and satisfaction of each passenger.

In the first place, reduced rates for side excursions to New York, Washington, Norfolk, Baltimore and other points are secured, which enables those who desire to extend the trip to do so at a small additional cost. The remarkably low rate of $2.50 per day at the Hygeia Hotel is granted to holders of special excursion tickets, and this hospitality is pronounced by all who have gathered around its festive board and who have pronounced its spacious halls, parlors and corridors, to be a veritable paradise for the rest and comfort of the weary traveler. Then an experienced representative of the Company is sent with the party to look after every detail and see that nothing is left undone to make the trip all that could be expected.

The chance to avoid the heating rays of the sun and place yourself where the ocean breeze can cool your brow, should not pass unnoticed.

What might be termed a case of almost-mindlessness occurred the other day. A man started from home to his place of business, and when about half way there stopped to light a cigar. The wind blowing in his face, he turned around to get his light, and then jogged along contentedly without noticing the change in direction, until he brought up at his own door. Then he was mad.—Post & Lac (Wis.) Journal.

The Republican County Committee, which met Monday, re-affirmed its former endorsement of John Boyd for sheriff, in spite of his record and the unmistakable evidences that the better element of the Republican party will not support him or those who approve of his conduct.

"Just as Good."

Say some dealers who try to sell a substitute preparation when a customer calls for Hood's Sarsaparilla. Do not allow any such false statements as this to induce you to buy what you do not want. Remember that the only reason for making it is that a few cents more profit will be made on the substitute, instead upon having the best medicine—Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is peculiar to itself.
